

Substance Abuse Services

Program	Location(s)	Population Served	Program Description	Contact Information	How to Enroll	Cost to Participants
Alcoholics Anonymous/ Narcotics Anonymous	AA Information Center 3640 S. Cedar St. Suite S Tacoma, WA 98409	Anyone concerned that they or someone they know has a drinking problem.	The Information Center can help in times of crisis, and also informs people about the AA program/mission and about local meeting times and places. AA is a 12-step recovery program that has helped millions worldwide work through their drug/alcohol programs.	(253) 474-8897, 24-hours. NA helpline: (253) 531-8792 Or see website: www.pcana.org	Call for meetings in your area.	Free.
Alanon/Alateen	Several meeting locations throughout Tacoma. See website for specific sites: www.wa-al-anon.org.	Those who have a friend or family member whose life has been negatively affected by alcohol or drugs. Alateen is specifically for affected youth.	Group meetings provide a therapeutic setting in which those affected by alcohol and drugs can share, work through any issues they may have, and recover.	Contact 1-800-726-8094 for referral to local meetings and information and/or 24-hour crisis help.	See website for local meeting and attend.	Free.
C.A.R.E Tacoma -MDC	721 S. Fawcett - Tacoma, WA 98402	People looking for help with chemical abuse.	C.A.R.E. is a substance-abuse referral service that can connect someone looking for help with a resource that fits that individual's needs.	(253)572-2273	Call.	Referral service is no cost, may be charges for treatment.
Community Counseling Institute	2502 Tacoma Ave. S Tacoma, WA 98402 P.O. Box 5305	Anyone in need of chemical dependency treatment and/or education.	Information, education, evaluations, and treatments regarding chemical dependencies.	(253) 759-0852	Call for information.	Evaluations-$60, Treatment prices vary.
Drug-Free Community Service -A Chance to Change	5755 Soundview Dr. #C101 Gig Harbor, WA 98335	Youth involved in the juvenile justice system or at risk of getting into trouble.	Drug/alcohol assessment and placement.	(253) 853-7954	Referral process – referrals come from schools, diversion, probation, truancy boards, and other at-risk youth programs	Free.

Program	Location(s)	Population Served	Program Description	Contact Information	How to Enroll	Cost to Participants
Foundation El Camino	In transition. Please call for new location	Youth and adults.	DASA certified chemical dependency treatment; also provide counseling services and support groups	(253) 572-3214 email: foundationformul@qwest.net	Contact the Foundation for Multicultural Solutions office for more information.	Sliding scale. Funding for youth from low-income families provided through the state.
Horizon Treatment Centers	Tacoma/U.P. 2607 Bridgeport Way West, #2A2 Tacoma, WA 98466 Tacoma/Parkland 12108 Pacific Ave S Tacoma, WA 98444 Puyallup 11212 94th Avenue East Puyallup, WA 98373	Youth.	Horizon collaborates with school personnel and juvenile justice staff to provide a range of treatment, Early Periodic Screening, Diagnosis, & Treatment (EPSDT) services, outreach and support services to youth and their families throughout Pierce County.	Tacoma/U.P.: (253) 564-3377 or Toll Free (800) 464-8367 Tacoma/Parkland: (253) 531-9068 Puyallup: (253) 845-1171	Contact the office nearest you for more information.	Sliding scale.
Student Assistance Program –Tacoma Public Schools	Tacoma School District Central Administrative 601 S. 8 th St. Tacoma, WA 98405	Tacoma School District students.	The program works with parents, students, staff, and community to provide prevention and intervention services in the area of alcohol, tobacco, and drugs. Alcohol and other drug assessments are provided. Chemical Dependency Interventionists provide individual, group, or classroom education and support. Chemical Dependency Interventionists also provide case management services to ensure a match between families and community.	(253) 571-1322	Contact the student's school administrator or counselor.	Call for details.