

Capital Improvement Bond, March 10

What will the bond pay for?

This bond, if passed by voters, would complete modernizations or new construction at district secondary schools and small capital projects districtwide. The bond would fund major construction projects at:

- Baker Middle School
- Hunt Middle School
- Stewart Middle School
- Wilson High School, Phase II

Districtwide small capital projects include: HVAC upgrades, roof replacements, carpet replacements, energy conservation, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) compliance, playground equipment upgrades and site improvements for parking and traffic flow.

Small capital projects include: Foss High School carpet replacement and Foss Little Theater and athletic field upgrades; Lincoln High School athletic field and performing arts center upgrades; Stadium High School athletic field turf replacement; and Wilson High School athletic field and performing arts center upgrades.

What would the bond cost?

It is estimated that the overall school tax rate would increase by $.75 per thousand of assessed property value in 2010, if this bond measure is approved by voters. School taxes are significantly lower than in the past, and the proposed 2011 school tax rate would be $1.94 less than the total school tax rate in 2004.
